The library sends a BIG THANK YOU to our summer librarian Caroline Enns. We are sad that her contract is coming to an end. She helped many of you check out books, and she made amazing progress in cataloguing and bar-coding our books. Almost 9000 books are now in the computer, with more to go. We will continue the cataloguing project on a volunteer basis. Do stop in and take the opportunity to check out books and tapes. Come enjoy this fine facility, right here in our own community!

In support of historic preservation and community awareness, LGBC Unity Library has historic displays and memorabilia. A visit to the library in LaGrange Heritage Square is a stroll down memory lane. Visitors are welcome. Also take part in the EWC Community Education and Homesteaders Museum classes on the History of Southern Goshen County on Thursdays at 6PM. Call 307-715-2238 for registration information.

THE COMET IS COMING! Watch for information about LGBC Unity Association's community event to observe the comet in November.

American Legion Auxiliary Info: Watch for signs about a children's party on Halloween night, October 31st. If your organization, business, or family would like to co-sponsor this event with the Auxiliary, please contact Mary Green at 307-532-5143.

Auxiliary meetings will usually be held on the first Monday of each month. Please watch for the dates and join us in this valuable service organization. We NEED YOU!
